Dear Sir,

I am writing to show my disapproval of Australia signing the treaty for an International Criminal Court.

We feel that Australia will be signing something that is unparliamentary and not warranted also that in all probability is also unconstitutional.

For special crimes like those of Kosovo or Rwanda it is right, but not an ongoing court the way the U.N. wants it.

We have enough problems in Australia without the pressure of the U.N.

Yours faithfully
Charles M. Sicular
