

Multiculturalism in Australia.

To: Hon. Ms. Vamvakinou MP
Chair: Joint Standing Committee on Migration

Thank you for this opportunity to contribute a submission on ‘multiculturalism’.

Here are the thoughts of one who considers herself an Australian (me):-

- Australia is a wonderful country. It is a privilege and honour to live here.
- I want Australia to remain a wonderful country.
- Australia is so fair, welcoming and caring.
- Australia enjoys free speech and freedoms envied by many other nations.
- Australia is democratic.
- Australian Constitution allows for these freedoms.
- Australia is good, because it’s core values are built on Judeo/ Christian Ethic.

People of ALL races are welcome in Australia, provided they adapt, assimilate, co-operate with and respect our wonderful culture and values.

People who refuse to assimilate or honour Australia’s core values and culture;
People who insist on Australian values and culture changing to accommodate them are not welcome here.

People from other cultures come to Australia to enjoy the freedoms here. If the Australian Government allows our existing values to be compromised, these freedoms will also be compromised and sadly, the Australia we know and love now, will no longer be recognisable as our wonderful Australia.
