Dear Ms Cerrato-D' Amico

JSC on Migration Hearing on 5 September 2005

At the JSC on Migration hearing on 5 September, I took on notice a question from Senator Kirk as to whether there were any other universities in Singapore besides the National University of Singapore (NUS) which offered law degrees.

I have checked through the Australian High Commission in Singapore and they have advised that at the present time NUS is the only university in Singapore with a law school.

Yours sincerely
