

To the Honourable the Speaker and Members of the House of Representatives;

This petition of a 'resident of Australia' (father) and 'Certain citizens of Australia' namely his 2 children, draws to the attention of the House: the requirement for a Committee with Quasi Judicial powers to accept and determine, from the people, section 72(ii) of the Constitution of Australia issues and improper administrations of justice committed in the Federal Courts of Australia.

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty sets the example in Her Honourable Home by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council. We seek the like to accept complaints like; of judicial wrongs, and denials of justice, from a wronged person/s in person.

There is/will be a petition of the petitioners for a decision pursuant to section 72(ii) of the Constitution sought in this Honourable House that such a body could have decided before it is placed before this Honourable House.

We pray the House;

Accepts this is but one issue with JUST CAUSE to URGENTLY CREATE a "Judicial Committee of Inquiry" that has Quasi Judicial powers to;

Accept complaints citing the judiciary.

Make "section 72(ii) of the Constitution(Cth)" recommendations to the House.

Make "section 75(v) of the Constitution(Cth)" applications to a Court on behalf of members of the public.

Make recommendations of compensation for judicial wrongs be paid to the party/ies by whom appropriate other than a judicial officer.

The power to send a matter back to the Court, including the High Court, for reconsideration.
