Written Question on Notice

Senator Fierravanti-Wells asked:

How many meetings were held with health officials from states and territories in relation to Health Reform Mark I and Health Reform Mark II? Please provide details of all meetings, including venue, times, attendees and costs.

Answer:

A range of meetings were held and are continuing to be held in each state and territory between officials from the Department of Health and Ageing and state/territory health department officials. Department of Health and Ageing costs are being met from within existing operational budgets.
