Senator Wright asked:

In addition to JSA, what organisations are the Department working with to deliver PHaMS employment-related services?

Please provide information about the organisations that are currently providing those services.

Answer:

All PHaMs providers actively help participants to access employment related assistance and support them to remain in training or employment where this is part of an individual's Recovery Plan.

Non-Government organisations delivering PHaMS in 59 sites also deliver Commonwealth employment programs such as Job Services Australia, Disability Employment Services or Disability Employment Assistance.
