Senator Boyce asked:

Provide an update of moving recruitment advertising online. Is any recruitment still in printed materials, and if yes, why? What are the estimated savings for each year over the forward estimates?

Answer:

FaHCSIA advertises selectively in some regional print media to attract a local market for specific roles in our State and Territory Network, and Indigenous print media such as the Koori Mail to attract Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander candidates.

FaHCSIA cannot predict savings over the forward estimates as the costs are variable depending on vacancies available in the Department.
