Senator Edwards asked:

Does the Government have an interest in investing in income management in this region?

Answer:

The Government has invested $117.5 million over five years across the five Place-Based Income Management sites: Bankstown NSW, Shepparton, VIC, Logan and Rockhampton QLD and Playford SA, this includes funding for Financial Management Program services. Additional funding has been provided for Communities for Children Services as a part of the broader Building Australia's Future Workforce package.
