Outcome Number: 8

Question No: 554

Topic: Aged Care Sector Committee

Hansard Page: Written

Senator Polley asked:

The Aged Care Sector Committee contains one union representative, from the Nurses and Midwifery Federation, but no one representing the many aged care workers not employed as nurses. How will their voice be heard or how will they be officially represented?

Answer:

A representative of the National Aged Care Alliance (comprising a range of organisations from across the aged care sector including the aged care workforce) will be appointed to the Committee.
