Senator Claire Moore asked:

The interim report for the comparative evaluation in WA was due in December. Has that been given to the Department/Minister? If yes, what are the findings and will it be made public? If not, why has there been a delay and when can we expect it?

Answer:

Stantons International provided the draft interim report of the comparative evaluation of the two Western Australian (WA) National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) trial site models to the co-chairs of the WA Joint Steering Committee on 18 December 2015.

The draft report has been under consideration by the Joint Steering Committee since this time.

A final draft of the interim report of the comparative evaluation of the two WA NDIS trial site models has not yet been provided to Ministers.
