Question No: 28

Topic: Australian Institute of Family Studies

Hansard Page: CA37 - 29 May 2012

Senator Siewert asked:

Can you provide the scope and reporting timeframe for the study of recently separated parents, commissioned by the Attorney-General's Department?

Answer:

The Australian Institute of Family Studies has been commissioned by the Attorney-General's Department to conduct research into the experiences of recently separated parents.

A report will be provided to the Attorney-General's Department upon completion of the project in April 2013.
