Senator Moore asked:

What steps is the department taking to inform stakeholders of the change or transitional arrangements?

Answer:

The Department is holding a series of formal consultation sessions in capital cities in July 2014. An Options Paper outlining proposed replacement arrangements was uploaded onto the Department's website on 4 July 2014 and written submissions, from interested parties, on the proposed options will be accepted until 20 August 2014. These consultations will inform the second stage of the repeal legislation.

A full list of sessions and the options paper is available on the Department's website at www.dss.gov.au.
