Senator Moore asked:

What work is being done to harmonise or standardise the fundraising requirements of different States and Territories?

If the COAG NFP Reform working group is disbanded - or to be disbanded - how can this be achieved?

Answer:

Fundraising regulation is a state and territory responsibility. Work to develop a nationally consistent approach to charitable fundraising continues to be progressed by the Council of Australian Governments' Legislative and Governance Forum on Consumer Affairs (CAF). Further questions should be directed to the Treasury.
