Outcome Number: 4

Question No: 393

Topic: Affordable housing for earn or learn participants

Hansard Page: Written

Senator Siewert asked:

Is the requirement that most young people 'earn or learn' supported by sufficient, affordable housing in areas where there are jobs or transport connections?

Answer

Under the National Affordable Housing Agreement, States and Territories are responsible for the supply of affordable housing across metropolitan and regional areas which have different employment opportunities and transport infrastructure.
