Hansard Page: Written

Senator Brown asked:

How will the Department communicate the Stronger Relationships program to the public - will there be a public information campaign of any sort? Will the Department be communicating directly with potentially eligible people?

Answer:

The Department will undertake a range of communication activities to inform providers and couples about the trial. Information will be available primarily on the department's website, including a brochure for couples and a fact sheet for providers. A small number of brochures will be distributed through providers and celebrants.
