EB14-000007	0 - Cross	Brown	Staffing	How many positions, if any, does the Department expect will be lost in Canberra as a result of efficiency dividends or any other measures?
EB14-000008	0 - Cross	Brown	Other Corporate Matters	Please provide the monthly expenditure since February 2014 of the Ministerial Office, Assistant Minister's office and Parliamentary Secretary's office on catering.
EB14-000009	4 - Housing	Bishop	Housing	NRAS Incentives allocated in previous rounds are at various stages of implementation or conclusion. In some cases, the incentives are incorporated into Contracts of Sale that underpin financing for the projects of which they are part. For example there is a development of apartments in Victoria Park which includes about 35 apartments which have NRAS incentives attached to them. The final stage of negotiation in respect of building cost is now being completed and a construction contract should be signed in the next month. Can you tell me whether incentives in this instance will be honoured by the federal government?
EB14-000010	4 - Housing	Bishop	Housing	In other cases - the NRAS incentives are incorporated into Contracts of Sale in respect of the building and are at various stages of completion from initial earth works through to those almost completed and ready to hand over. Will these incentives be honoured?
EB14-000011	4 - Housing	Bishop	Housing	Are you aware of the significant concern in the industry about whether announcements in the Budget affect the immediate future of NRAS incentives allocated prior to Round 5? a. EB14-000014	0 - Cross	Brown	Reviews	Please provide a list of all current ongoing reviews, be they commissioned before or after the election.
EB14-000015	4 - Housing	Bishop	Housing	Has the Government considered that the removal of NRAS incentives in either of the two categories which are the subject of contracted arrangements and of partly completed dwellings would cause maximum political damage without, apparently, making savings that were worth the fight?
EB14-000016	4 - Housing	Bishop	Housing	It is possible that removal of some incentives in these categories would provoke legal action which would be costly and would create very unfavourable publicity including about an unpredictable and uncertain 'changing of the rules' by Government.
EB14-000017	4 - Housing	Bishop	Housing	Does the Department agree that the best outcome would that: a) NRAS incentives which are being implemented are left with the successful applicants to be fulfilled on the understanding that it was expected that every reasonable effort would be made to implement the credits; and b) NRAS incentives allocated but which are sitting with the successful applicants unused and not subject to any arrangement related to the construction of affordable or any other type of housing, should be available to other applicants with a proven track record.
EB14-000018	4 - Housing	Bishop	Housing	Would you agree that Western Australian NRAS submissions in Round 5 included a better mix of inner city and middle ring suburbs or in other words, suburbs are usually more costly in term so of rents, that have better public transport links, are closer to services, schools, etc.? a) Is this true in other states?
EB14-000019	4 - Housing	Bishop	Housing	Can you advise what "additional benefits" were extracted by state agencies in NRAS Round 5 - For example I understand in some Western Australian applications, rent discounts of up to 30% were offered?
