

Australian Government
Department of Social Services

Good afternoon

As you may be aware, earlier this year the Department of Social Services, formerly FaHCSIA (the Department) conducted an open selection process for Royal Commission Community-based support services. In July 2013, 28 organisations were announced to deliver services such as counselling, support and case management to individuals affected by the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse.

Unfortunately, this open selection process did not identify any appropriate specialist services to groups such as those affected by clergy or religious abuse. To address this gap the Department is now conducting a restricted selection process and invites your organisation to submit an application to deliver Royal Commission specialist community-based services.

An application for funding is attached to this email, along with the Program Guidelines, Terms and Conditions and a draft Grant Agreement. Applications close 2:00pm on 29 November 2013 and can be submitted by return email.

If you have any questions, please contact the Department for assistance at rcsupportservices@dss.gov.au

We look forward to receiving your application.

Kind regards

Eliza Strapp

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Eliza Strapp', with a stylized flourish at the end.

Branch Manager
Family Support Program
Department of Social Services

Australian Government
Department of Social Services

Good afternoon

As you may be aware, earlier this year the Department of Social Services, formerly FaHCSIA (the Department) conducted an open selection process for Royal Commission Community-based support services. In July 2013, 28 organisations were announced to deliver services such as counselling, support and case management to individuals affected by the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse.

Unfortunately, this open selection process did not identify any appropriate specialist services to groups such as Indigenous Australians. To address this gap the Department is now conducting a restricted selection process and invites your organisation to submit an application to deliver Royal Commission specialist community-based services.

An application for funding is attached to this email, along with the Program Guidelines, Terms and Conditions and a draft Grant Agreement. Applications close 2:00pm on 29 November 2013 and can be submitted by return email.

If you have any questions, please contact the Department for assistance at rcsupportservices@dss.gov.au

We look forward to receiving your application.

Kind regards

Eliza Strapp

Branch Manager
Family Support Program
Department of Social Services

Australian Government
Department of Social Services

Good afternoon

As you may be aware, earlier this year the Department of Social Services, formerly FaHCSIA (the Department) conducted an open selection process for Royal Commission Community-based support services. In July 2013, 28 organisations were announced to deliver services such as counselling, support and case management to individuals and affected family members affected by the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse.

Unfortunately, this open selection process did not identify any appropriate specialist services to groups such as people with disabilities. To address this gap the Department is now conducting a restricted selection process and invites your organisation to submit an application to deliver Royal Commission specialist community-based services.

An application for funding is attached to this email, along with the Program Guidelines, Terms and Conditions and a draft Grant Agreement. Applications close 2:00pm on 29 November 2013 and can be submitted by return email.

If you have any questions, please contact the Department for assistance at rcsupportservices@dss.gov.au

We look forward to receiving your application.

Kind regards

Eliza Strapp

Branch Manager
Family Support Program
Department of Social Services