Senator Rachel Siewert asked:

Can you make the final Action Plan a public document?

Answer:

No. The Nous Action Plan has been taken into account with other feedback such as recommendations from the Senate Inquiry and comments collected through stakeholder engagements, such as the Community Services Advisory Group and the Major Churches Providers Group, to develop an implementation plan. The plan is departmental working document that draws together issues to be considered for future grants rounds. As such, it not appropriate for public release.
