Question Date: 19 February 2016
Question Type: Written

Senator Madigan asked:

If the Federal Department of the Environment has not established a transition planning and management process or committed funds to help ameliorate the impact of power station closure in the Latrobe Valley, has the Department taken any other actions, alone or with the Victorian government, to facilitate and assist the region with economic transition? If so, what are these?

Answer:

The Department has not taken any actions to facilitate or assist the Latrobe Valley region with economic transition.
