Question: AET 1526-1527

Topic: National Housing Supply Council (TSR)

Written: 6 March 2014

Senator McLucas asked:

1526. Is the Government considering the re-establishment of the National Housing Supply Council or a similar federal mechanism?

1527. Has Treasury been contacted by the States and Territories, or the housing sector, expressing concern about the abolition of the National Housing Supply Council?

Answer:

1526. On Friday 8 November 2013, the Government announced the abolition of a number of non-statutory bodies, including the National Housing Supply Council.

The Government will continue to receive advice from a broad range of housing stakeholders in industry and the community.

1527. No
