REFERENCE: Written Question – Senator Carr

QUESTION No.: AI-133

The Government has signalled to stakeholders there will be a second round of anti-dumping reforms in 2016. When are these expected?

ANSWER

The Government is developing a package of reforms to further improve the efficiency and transparency of Australia's anti-dumping system. The Government is consulting with relevant stakeholders, including Australian industry, with a view to finalising the reforms in the coming months.
