1185. Yes, however it is not possible to determine which items were purchased as a result of a workstation assessment conducted by an external consultant (e.g. Accredited Occupational Therapist) compared with those items identified as necessary as a result of a self-assessment, or assessment conducted by an in-house work health and safety advisor.

1186. A total of $46,722.27 was spent on workplace ergonomic equipment. Items of expenditure:
