Department of Education and Training Question No. SQ17-000105

Senator Kakoschke-Moore, Skye provided in writing

Number of applications for courses have been rejected?

Question

During Question Time on February 15, Minister Birmingham said that 23 courses not on the eligible course list have been approved for individual providers. How many applications for courses have been rejected?

Answer

166 courses. Courses were not approved where they did not demonstrate strong evidence of employer support, employment outcomes for students and course progression and completion by students.
