

Senate Committee: Education and Employment

QUESTION ON NOTICE Additional Estimates 2016 - 2017

Outcome: Schools and Youth

Department of Education and Training Question No. SQ17-000508

Senator Collins, Jacinta provided in writing.

Also refer to previous hearing Question No. SQ16-000940

The proportion of metropolitan Australian schools that have a level of low-SES disadvantage (SQ16-000940)

Question

What proportion of metropolitan Australian schools have the level of low-SES disadvantage as the school underlying the example submitted to Education Council, and referred to in SQ16-000940? (85 per cent Q1 and 10 percent Q2).

- please provide the proportion of metropolitan schools in each state and territory that have this level of disadvantage.
- please provide names of schools that actually match or closely match this type of school, in each state and territory.

Answer

The following table shows the proportion of major city schools by state and territory that have at least 85 per cent of students in Socio-Economic Advantage (SEA) quartile 1 and at least 10 per cent of students in SEA quartile 2. There are no schools in Tasmania or the Northern Territory categorised as major city schools.

State/territory	NSW	Vic.	Qld	SA	WA	Tas.	ACT	NT	Aus
Proportion	0.14%	0.06%	0.22%	0.21%	0.13%	N/A	0.00%	N/A	0.13%

Source: departmental model as at the 2016–17 Mid-Year Economic and Fiscal Outlook.

The table below lists schools that exactly match these criteria:

School	Location
Casino West Public School	NSW
Craig Davis College	NSW
Nowra East Public School	NSW
Mooroopna Park Primary School	Vic
Gympie Flexible Learning Centre	Qld
Kentville State School	Qld
Kaurna Plains School	SA
Lockridge Senior High School	WA

Listed below are government schools in metropolitan areas that closely match these criteria. These schools are estimated to have a Commonwealth share of the Schooling Resource Standard (SRS) within a 5 per cent range (i.e. 2.5 per cent either side) of the example school. Note: these schools may have a similar SRS despite having different characteristics.
