

Senate Standing Committee on Education and Employment

QUESTIONS ON NOTICE Additional Estimates 2016 - 2017

Agency - Fair Work Ombudsman

Department of Employment Question No. EMSQ17-001485

Senator Rice asked on 02 March 2017 on proof Hansard page 41

Question

FWO - SMH article underpayment of workers

Senator RICE: In the Sydney Morning Herald, the biggest New South Wales franchisee—I do not have this information here—was named as underpaying workers. Are you investigating that particular franchisee?

Mr Campbell: I do not have that information to hand.

ACTING CHAIR: Will you take that on notice?

Senator RICE: Can you take that on notice?

Mr Campbell: I am happy to take it on notice.

Answer

As part of the Fair Work Ombudsman's compliance activity involving a range of unannounced visits on Domino's sites throughout Australia, the agency can confirm it is investigating four stores owned by the store owner named in the article "The Domino's Effect" published in the Sydney Morning Herald on 11 February 2017. The investigation is ongoing.