Question

List of job placements by region and industry

Senator LINES: Could you say, in the way Mr Watson did, there is one in manufacturing et cetera? Could you say that, of the job seekers placed, X number are in manufacturing and retail and hospitality and so on? Ms Drayton: We did a question on notice from the last estimates that asked, of all the job placements, where they were and in what industry. I have updated that. It is an extremely long list so I am very happy to provide it to you on notice. Senator LINES: That would be great. Are there any top line numbers? Where are the majority of placements? Ms Drayton: It goes through every region by industry. So I really— Senator LINES: You cannot say? Ms Drayton: I do not have it broken down. Senator LINES: It sounds like very thorough analysis and great that you have updated it. If you can provide that to us, that would be really helpful.
