Question

FWBC - Letter from Mr Hadgkiss

With reference to the statement and answers to subsequent questions of Deputy Commissioner Graham Ashton of Victoria Police to the Senate Education and Employment References Committee in a public hearing in Canberra on 17th March, 2014 that: "...I think it was last month, we received a letter from Mr. Hadgkiss from that body which sought to itemise the matters in writing and seek a response from Victoria Police as to what we were doing about those matters. So, to my knowledge, that was the first time we had we had received those in writing. Senator Cameron: Were these just allegations? Were they allegations or was it like a brief of evidence? Mr. Ashton: No, these were allegations of criminal misconduct – criminal activity." [Senate Education and Employment References Committee Hansard, 17th March 2014, page 8] Please provide the letter sent by Mr. Hadgkiss to Victoria Police referred to by Deputy Commissioner Ashton
