Research Policy and Funding Review - submissions

Question

I note that submissions closed on 18 September.

(a) How many submissions were received?

(b) Are these publicly available?

(c) If not: Why not? Is there an intention to make them available? Isn't this a marked contrast to the approach ACOLA is taking to the research training review?

Answer

The Review received 76 submissions, of which 12 were marked private. The public submissions were published in December 2015.
