Question:

Senator KETTER: Ms Halton, I have some questions in relation to Malabar Headland and, in particular, issues related to the proposed transfer of ownership of parts of that area to the New South Wales government. What is the cost to government for the engagement of Coffey Projects (Australia) Pty Ltd to prepare the initial business case for the divestment of Malabar Headland which was dated 17 September 2014?

Ms Halton: We will have to take that on notice. I am advised we do not have that figure here. You would be aware that there was a change in the policy, so we will actually have to look to see whether and if how much was expended.

Answer:

$211,545.00 (exclusive of GST).
