Question:

Senator WONG: I would like to know, on notice, what you did in response to the three or four documents that have been referenced in response to Senate estimates questions on notice.

Senator Scullion: I will just say that letters were sent in response to those letters that came to me. We will see if we can provide those letters, which lay out our response and the discussions that would have been had by officials in that regard.

Answer:

The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet was advised that the Minister for Indigenous Affairs had discussed the correspondence referred to with the Chair of the Indigenous Land Corporation.
