Question:

Senator MOORE: I want to follow up on the review processes, Ms Hosking. One of the things we have been trying to find out is where and at what timing we get data on the SEAM trial. Up until this hearing, SEAM has not been discussed on this day. It was held onto very strongly by another committee so, whilst we have always been interested in SEAM, we could not ask questions in this area. What we have been trying to find out is exactly what data is released when about SEAM. We were involved in the beginning with the original trial. Is the data you are reading out released publicly on a quarterly basis? How is it done? Is it on the website? Is it something that is tabled?

Ms Hosking: I can take that on notice. I do not know myself, so I will find out.

Answer:

SEAM data is currently not published.
