Question:

What data will be required from GenerationOne to monitor the progress and value for money of the $45 million investment of taxpayers' money?

Answer:

GenerationOne's role is primarily to provide advice on the employment model. GenerationOne is not being funded to deliver the employment model and is not required to report on the outcomes.

Providers will be engaged by Government to provide services under the GenerationOne employment model. Key performance indicators and contractual reporting requirements for providers are being developed and will include employment outcomes such as attainment of 26-week job retention.
