

Senator Sherry asked whether any other financial planners have been charged in Tasmania at the moment (E 14)

No other persons operating businesses as financial planners in Tasmania are presently before the courts having been charged with offences.