Question Number: W402-04

Question:

Senator Wong asked at Hansard page 121:

Has the Taskforce taken any action for breaches of Awards in relation to any conditions of employment, non-provision of a condition of employment to an employee?

Answer:

It is not part of the Taskforce's remit to investigate or take action in relation to breaches of awards in relation to any conditions of employment or non-provision of a condition of employment to an employee in the building and construction industry. If instances of breaches of awards in relation to conditions of employment or non-provision of a condition of employment to an employee are discovered in the course of Taskforce investigations, these are drawn to the attention of the employer or referred to the Office of Workplace Services in the Department, or to the relevant state jurisdiction. Information on these matters is not collected by the Taskforce.
