Question Number: W174-05

Question:

Senator Jacinta Collins asked at Hansard page 32:

What were the printing arrangements for the department's 2003-04 Annual Report?

Answer:

The department engaged the services of a graphic design company to design, layout and print the report. The report was perfect bound, that is, sections of text are hot-glued to the cover. Unfortunately, the glue did not adhere properly on a number of copies and these were replaced by the printer. As compensation, the department negotiated a discount on the printing costs.
