SENATE LEGISLATION COMMITTEE - QUESTIONS ON NOTICE 2005-2006 ADDITIONAL ESTIMATES HEARING

Outcome: 2
Output Group: 2.4 – Funding for Higher Education

DEST Question No. E847_06

Senator Wong asked on 15 February 2006, EWRE Hansard page 95

Question:

Were those EFTSLs allocated to particular faculties or courses? Can the 490 be disaggregated into X number of this or that?

A newspaper report has made some comments about the amount of funding—what is the reduction in funds resulting from the 490 reduction?

Answer:

Reallocation of Commonwealth Supported Places – Central Queensland University

Central Queensland University (CQU) requested the following cluster movements in 2006. This includes the net effect of a reduction in places and movement between clusters requested by the University to better reflect student demand.

		EFTSL
Cluster 1	Law	27.00
Cluster 2	Accounting, Administration, Economics, Commerce	-17.00
Cluster 3	Humanities	25.00
Cluster 4	Mathematics, Statistics	61.00
Cluster 5	Behavioural Science, Social Studies	-180.00
Cluster 6	Computing, Built Environment, Health	-54.00
Cluster 7	Languages, Visual & Performing Arts	-206.50
Cluster 8	Engineering, Science, Surveying	51.00
Cluster 9	Dentistry, Medicine, Veterinary Studies	-8.00
Cluster 10	Agriculture	2.00
Cluster 11	Education	-166.75
Cluster 12	Nursing	-23.94
Total reduction		490.19

Data is available at the cluster level only and cannot be split into faculties or courses.

The amount of Commonwealth Grant Scheme funding these places represent is $4.1 million.
