

CURRICULUM VITAE

Mark Bromley
2 Johnstone Street
Masterton
NEW ZEALAND

Phone: 06 370 8568

e-mail: concorde@wise.net.nz or mark.bromley@hillsong.com

Personal

Male

Date of Birth: 20/05/1958

Driver Licence: AA833650 (expires 2013)

Health: No conditions or health problems

Competencies

- HR Management
- Strategic processes
- Written and verbal communication including presentations
- Project management
- Financial management and reporting
- Systems development
- Problem-solving
- Leadership
- Participatory decision-making/group processes
- Cross-cultural communication
- Computer applications – word processing, spreadsheets, database, electronic financial reporting systems

Qualifications

- | | |
|------|--|
| 1988 | Bachelor of Arts (Geography and Psychology), Victoria University of Wellington. |
| 1991 | Master of Science (Economic Development), Eastern University, Pennsylvania, USA. |

Professional Experience

- | | |
|-----------------|--|
| November 2002 - | Opportunity International (Aust.) Project Director for MRO (Many Rivers Opportunities) pilot project, Northern NSW (18 month contract) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Developed and led the implementation of a Micro-enterprise Development (MED) project to Indigenous Australians• Led the project design resulting in A$1.3 contract• Developed the MED methodology• Produced a comprehensive Manual of Reference• Recruited and managed branch staff• Co-wrote the 5 year business plan for expansion and replication of the project• Financial and programme reporting• Co-ordination of activities with local community and government agencies |
|-----------------|--|

August 1999 -
October 2002

Wairarapa Youth Choices Trust.

Manager

- Established an Alternative Education programme for alienated students in the Wairarapa
- Developed complementary programmes for 'at risk' youth
- Developed a regional association of Alternative Education providers
- Recruited and managed staff
- Established and managed relationships with community agencies, non-profit groups and government
- Raised funds, prepared budgets and managed finances

1996 – 1999

Opportunity International (Aust.) Project Advisor to micro-enterprise development projects in Soweto, South Africa and Harare, Zimbabwe – 3 year contract.

- Oversaw Australian government grant funds of $3 million – budgets, plans, allocation and reports
- Facilitated the establishment of 5 branches in Soweto
- Recruited and managed branch staff
- Wrote training materials for the Africa Regional programme (5 countries)
- Oversaw institutional and project impact evaluations

1992 - 1996

Mennonite Central Committee (MCC). Economic Development Consultant seconded to Innu Nation, Labrador (Canada) to work with indigenous economic development office:

- Re-established the Innu Development Corporation
- Raised funds for community and individually owned business start-ups ($200,000 plus)
- Established lasting connections with Aboriginal Business Canada (ABC) – Federal Government small business facilitation agency for indigenous groups.
- Led a process resulting in preferential access to commercial fishery for Innu Nation ($300,000 annual income)
- Participated in the Impacts and Benefits Agreement process (business) between Innu a major mining initiative in Northern Labrador
- Coordinated baseline studies for proposed mineral developments in preparation for social impact assessment
- Trained a local economic development (ED) manager
- Accessed $250,000 annual operational funding for ED office
- Managed office and project budgets

Consultancies

Five year strategic plan and board development for Southwest Community Development Corporation (SWCDC), Philadelphia, PA (1991)

Pre-feasibility (scoping) study for Microenterprise Development (MED) with Indigenous Australians (2000)

Project Leader - Feasibility Study for MED with Indigenous Australians (2001)

Mid-term evaluation (internal) for Many Rivers Opportunities (MRO) pilot project (2003)

Co-wrote "Economic Benefits of Opportunity International's Pilot Project" submitted for publication (co-authored with Professor Owen Stanley, James Cook University, Australia) – (2004)

Positions Held

Chair of the Eastern College Graduate Student Council 1990-1991.

Member of the Central Labrador Economic Development Board (1994-1996)

Chaired the sub-committee responsible for establishing the contract between the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador and the Central Labrador ED Board (1995-1996)

Chair of the Wairarapa Addictions Services Board 2000-2002 (board member from 1999)

Referees

Mr Keith Hunt
Miki Miki Rd
Masterton
Tel: 372 5880

Former employer, Wairarapa Youth Choices Trust

Ms Mary Freeman
C/- Wairarapa Addiction Services
20 Victoria Street
Masterton
Tel: 377 3156

Former colleague/employee, Wairarapa Addiction Services