Question Number: W1214-07

Question:

Senator Wong asked in writing:

Pay and conditions scales How are employers and employees who are covered by APCSs that are currently not published on DEWR's website expected to locate information on the wages that they must legally be providing? Where is this information located? What organisation should such employers and employees contact for authoritative advice as to pay rates?

Answer:

Employers and employees contact the WorkChoices Infoline for all information associated with pay and conditions. The WorkChoices and WageNet websites direct clients to contact this information service.

Estimated cost: Based on the FOI calculator it has taken approximately 11 hours at an estimated cost of $220 to prepare this answer.
