Senator Hanson-Young provided in writing.

Question

EXCLUSIVE BRETHREN'S SCHOOL EXEMPTION

Has the Exclusive Brethren requested or been given an exemption from the requirement set out in the BER guidelines that the new facilities or existing school facilities be made available for use by the public? How many schools have been given or requested an exemption from that requirement? Please give their names.

Answer

The Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations has not received any requests or given any exemptions from the requirement set out in the BER guidelines that the new facilities or existing school facilities be made available for use by the public.
