Senator Cormann asked on 11/02/2010, Hansard page 102.

Question

VET STUDENTS

How many VET students got the training and learning bonus? Do we know that? Is that something that was managed through your department? Was your department involved?

Answer

The training and learning bonus is administered by Centrelink.

Centrelink have advised they are unable to source information on the extent of the payment of the training and learning bonus paid to VET students as there is no data source that specifically identifies VET students.
