- b) How many payments owed (as a number and as a percentage of the total) have been paid in under 30 days?
- c) How many payments owed (as a number and as a percentage of the total) have been paid in between 30 and 60 days?
- d) How many payments owed (as a number and as a percentage of the total) have been paid in between 60 and 90 days?
- e) How many payments owed (as a number and as a percentage of the total) have been paid in between 90 and 120 days?
- f) How many payments owed (as a number and as a percentage of the total) have been paid in over 120 days?
- g) For accounts not paid within 30 days, is interest being paid on overdue amounts and if so how much has been paid by the portfolio/department agency since 7 September 2013?
- h) Where interest is being paid, what rate of interest is being paid and how is this rate determined?

Answer

The Fair Work Commission aims to have all accounts paid within 30 days of receipt of a correctly rendered invoice and subject to goods and services being provided to a satisfactory standard. We have not collected statistics on overdue payments.

The Fair Work Commission has not incurred any interest for overdue accounts.
