Question Number: W139-07

Question:

Senator Wong asked in writing:

Could the Department advise where the 2005 review of Seacare scheme legislation is up to and when is the Minister expected to respond to the recommendations of the Ernst and Young report of nearly one year ago?

Answer:

The recommendations in the Ernst & Young report are still under consideration by the Department. It is not possible to indicate at this stage when the Government might respond to the report's recommendation.
