Question

Budget cuts and impact on staffing and processing of agreements

How many meetings have been held with the CPSU in relation to agency redundancies?

Answer

The Workplace Authority has provided the following response:

The Workplace Authority has met with the CPSU on one occasion, 27 February 2008, to specifically discuss redundancies. During negotiations surrounding the Authority's Collective Agreement (CA) a number of meetings were held during which the subject of excess or potentially excess staff and redundancies was discussed as part of the wider CA agenda.
