DEST Question No. E340_05

Senator Ludwig provided in writing.

Question:

Can the Department provide a current list of each community information publication it publishes in English as at:

- a) the current date (2 December 2004) or if this is unavailable
- b) 30 June 2004 (and take from then to 2 December 2004 on Notice) or if this is unavailable
- c) 1 January 2004 (and take from then to 2 December 2004 On Notice) or if this is unavailable
- d) the last date for which they were available (specify date and take from then to 2 December 2004 On Notice)?

For the above list, what publications are translated into languages other than English and for each, what languages are they translated into?

For the above list, how many copies were printed?

For the above list, what was the total cost of each document in translation, publication, printing and distribution?

Answer:

Community Information Publications

ANTA provided the following response.

ANTA has supplied a list of current publications (Attachment A) and provided the following response:

- 1) None of the listed publications have been translated into languages other than English.
- 2) Print runs for ANTA publications vary widely depending on a publication's audience and purpose. As a guide, the highest print run for an ANTA publication is 26,000 copies, for our quarterly magazine Australian Training. The lowest print run is 2,500 copies for our draft industry skills reports. The majority of ANTA publications have a print run ranging between 2,500 and 10,000 copies.
- 3) ANTA's publications budget for the 2004 calendar year was $328,500. There are also additional publications that are paid for from separate project budgets within ANTA.

AIATSIS provided the following response.

AIATSIS publishes books, research papers and similar documents on Australian Indigenous cultures. A list is available on our web site at www.aiatsis.gov.au. None of these would seem to fall within the scope of 'community information publication', and none has been translated into languages other than English

CSIRO provided the following response.

While CSIRO produces a number of publications about its research capabilities and achievements, usually these publications target particular stakeholders rather than the community at large. Occasionally CSIRO publications are translated into other languages for use with potential overseas clients or collaborators.

CSIRO's Double Helix Science Club produces two regular magazines ("The Helix" and "Scientific") for its members. These magazines are produced in English.

AIMS and the ARC provided a nil response.

The information from the Department and ANSTO is provided in the following table:
