Answer

Registered Training Providers

It is not possible to identify all Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) operating in particular locations. The names and addresses of head offices of RTOs are recorded on the National Training Information Service (NTIS) website, <http://www.ntis.gov>. However, RTOs may operate in many areas outside the region of their head office and the areas in which they operate may change frequently. Details of the areas of operation are not recorded nationally.
