Question:

DEST Annual report p.230, a consultancy by the Australia and New Zealand School of Government on the ANTA transition (PRN9992, contract no. 76485). Has the case study been completed? If so, when was the report provided to DEST? If not, when is the consultancy due to report? Will the report be made publicly available? If so, when? If not, why not?

Answer:

ANZSOG report on the transition of ANTA functions to DEST.

DEST contracted the Australia and New Zealand School of Government (ANZSOG) to develop a case study of the change management processes used for the transition of functions of the Australian National Training Authority (ANTA) to DEST. This is for use as a teaching tool for students of government policy undertaking courses at ANZSOG.

The first draft of the case study has been completed and it is expected to be finalised by the end of the year. Publication will be for ANZSOG students.
