Question Number: W1029-07

Question:

Senator Wong asked in writing: Job Capacity Assessments – JCA and the Personal Support Program. Who at Centrelink has access to the PSP exit reports and makes recommendations for a JCA assessment after a social outcome?

Answer:

All Personal Support Programme (PSP) participants who exit the programme with a social outcome (that is, complete two years in PSP) will be sent for a Job Capacity Assessment (JCA) to determine the next steps for the participant, Centrelink arranges the JCA appointment for the person.

Centrelink can view and print the PSP exit report from DEWR's Integrated Employment System. The JCA provider will collect from Centrelink a hard copy of the PSP exit report for participants who have been referred to them for an assessment.
