Question Number: W678-07

Question:

Senator Wong asked in writing: How many applications have been received in relation to this Scheme? Of those, how many have been approved, rejected, pending determination? Of those rejected, on what grounds was the application rejected?

Answer:

As at 31 October 2006, 35 applications had been received and processed in relation to the Unlawful Termination Assistance Scheme. Twenty four were approved and 11 were deemed ineligible.

Reason application was deemed ineligible	Number of applications
Australian Industrial Relations Commission certificate not obtained, or certificate demonstrated applicant did not meet eligibility criteria	6
Applicant income was higher than the threshold, or proof of income not provided	4
Application made out of time	1

Estimated cost: Based on the FOI calculator it has taken approximately 3 hours at an estimated cost of $60 to prepare this answer.
