Question Number: W687-07

Question:

Senator Wong asked in writing: Work Choices Implementation Agencies - National Adviser Network Programme. Is the information provided directly to individual employers and employees, or is it part of a general education campaign?

Answer:

Information is provided directly to employers through a range of services including workshops, one-on-one tailored consultations and a dedicated website (www.nanp.com.au). The National Adviser Network Programme has also developed materials for employers to give their employees, concerning employees' rights under the Workplace Relations Act 1996.

Estimated cost: Based on the FOI calculator it has taken approximately 2 hours at an estimated cost of $40 to prepare this answer.
