Question Number: W798-07

Question:

Senator Crossin asked in writing:

The Australian Indigenous Leadership Centre has been selected to run indigenous leadership training to improve CDEP governance on a new pilot program. Could you provide up to date details of the Australian Indigenous Leadership Centre – Who is on their board of management and how were they selected? What government funding do they receive (if any) and from where?

Answer:

Information on the Australian Indigenous Leadership Centre Board of Directors can be found on the Centre's website. The selection of board members is an internal matter for the Australian Indigenous Leadership Centre.

The request for information on government funding received by the Australian Indigenous Leadership Centre should be directed to the Australian Indigenous Leadership Centre.
